FRESH DIFFICULTIES.

THE news from the North which we nublish in another column is of a nature likely to be extremely gratifying to those whose belief in the peaceful state of the Empire and the satisfactory settlement of existing difficulties is yet firm. The existence of a wide-spread conspiracy has been discovered at Soochow, and though such of the ringleaders as have yet been captured have been beheaded, the organization is, if the accounts be true, far too formidable to be dealt with in detail. The N. C. Daily News puts down the number of those implicated at 50,000-a nucleus which past experience has taught us may at suy moment develop into s hords of ruthans, undrilled and indivi dually weak it may be, but formidable from their numbers to the defenceless country-people. The strongest confirmation of the news lies in the fact that the residents near Southow are said to he flying towards Shanghai with their families and goods—so the Model Settlement may yet ouce more enter on an eru of high rents and profitable import business !

Secondly, there comes from I chang document, termed by the Courier a squib but which, assuraing it to be so, is able, like a squib, to burn the persons of those who incantionsly subject themselves to the fiery stream it emits. A reward is offered for the killing of Europeans to the amount of 40,000 cash per head, while, somewhat disproportionately, only | Gambling at these houses is a breach 100,000 cash are offered to whoever shall destroy aforeign steamer. "Squib" or not. the mere posting of such a placard upon the gates of a town notoriously hostile to foreigners is scarcely calculated to aid in low who had been dismissed the force the establishment of better relations for a similar breach of the regulations would seem to have made its appearance A. Quin, acting Assistant Superintendent just after the atterances of Lord Claren- which for the prisoner's interests had mu don about an "apology" were incantiously given to the Chinese public by the foreign-Chino journals; and a most the Secretary of State for foreign affairs upon the brilliant result of his policy !

Thirdly, we have nearly had a fresh Missionary complication. When Mr Taylor was accused of fanning the flances of outrage by injudicious proselytism, we defended him under the certainty that in that case at least he was falsely cased. We regret that we must now condemn his conduct in terms as direct as we previously defended it. It appears that he has thought fit to visit Pootoo, the head quarters of Budhism, as it may be termed in its immediate neighbourhood, with a view of proselytising the priests who, exclusively, inhabit that this they naturally ob jected and Mr Taylor has been summarily ejected from the place. By what course of reasoning Mr Taylor can have brought himself to the belief that so insulting an action to the priests can redound to the good of Christianity, or the conversion of Chinese, we cannot say; but we venture to imagine that few of his brother missionaries will endorse an act which, absolutely useless in itself, calculated only to excite hostility in the

WE may use the editorial privilege to say that we meant to compliment Mr Pollard upon the tact, legal acumen, and industry, with which he fought a hopeless battle for a day and a half. If ever there was a "great man struggling under difficulties" in a way to delight the gods, surely Mr Pollard was that man at the period we refer to .- ED. C.M.]

TO-DAY'S POLICE. Both Magistrates sat to-day.

John Ulsen, of the National Tayern, charged a seaman with having created di turbance in the said house of refreshment, l'ickering (the defendant) presented with a black eye; which he persisted was brought about by a "facer d livered from the shoulder of the aforesaid Ulsen. Another seaman proved Pickerma's version of the story to be the correes one; and instead of punishing tue sailor, Mr May tined Olsen in the sun A . BAD TURBAN. - Mirzah Beg, a Pun-jaub P. C. (belonging to the Sikh force) and labelied with No. 240, was charged by Inspector very with having been found in a gambling-house. This supporter of the licensed gambling-houses was found by the Inspector deeply en aged in fau-tan, while that officer was on the monthly inspection of the licensed dons. The Inspector turned Mirzah out of the place, and reported the matter to the Captain Superintendent of the Police Regulations, which are read and explained periodically to the members of the Police Force. This gamb ling pol ceman was dressed in clothes, and was in company of a fel between ourselves and the Chinese. It certificate was handed in, signed by Mr F better have not been put in at all. document set forth that Mirzah his not been idle during the present year. He had been fined $1 for getting drunk about the legitimate result it is. We congratulate Nev Year time, and had been mucted in $2 for having made a beast of hunself in the street while in uniform in February last, Five days after this last achievement, he again succeeded in getting drunk, and made an endeavour to shoot himself with his re volver: for which service he was remove from the mounted force to the Central Station for safer keeping. He was again caught in Ma ch last furthering the public interest by quietly sitting down on duty, and fined $1; and not four days ago he was convicted of having taken a pass from a Chinaman, charging him afterwards for not having a pass, which during achievements had the effects of $F fi s and reduction to the third class in the force. On the 18th (the day after) this bold Bez added the crowning laurel to his fame.

FOOCHOW.

(From a Correspondent.) On Thursday morolog, the 10to instant, at half p st 10, occurred at the lagoda Anchorage an event which has been anticipated with great interest for months past by those particularly concerned—the aunch of the first vessel built after a foreign model. he day was fine being cloudy. Mons Gi uel had invited the fore gu community of Fo chow to be present and witness the event, providing a small steamer to take the se down to the Anchorare who wished to go. She started about nine o'clock, and arrived abreast the \rsenal at half past ten, when, before the anchor had drop ed, and with ut any warning, the vessel shot gracefully into the water just in front of the steamer sporting three large flags, on which were immense Chinese characters : on the foremost one, the rench concession Monday ni ht, Th was the name of the vessel, Wan-nion-ching conspirators are almost all Canton or Ning-(萬年清) "en thousand-years-Pure." Bad quality of tea offered, high prices demanded, and discouraging advices from England, are the chief reasons for the present status of things. Some say the Chinese tea holders have made arrangements with their creditors by which they can hold out as long as the foreign merchants, and have even raised in their asking prices; others say that probably the season will open in about ten days or less. But who can tell, when it will open, or whether we shall not have one or two more disastrous freshets. Precedents in regard to tea and freshets seem to be of no account this summer.

The most interesting news we have to give to-day relates to the commencement or operations against the pirates in Yezo. After the attempt to cut out the Stonewall on May oth, the Mikado's fleet assembled in Awamori bay and thence proceeded to Esas'ni, the farthest point from Hakodate which the enemy had reached. Esashi was taken without difficulty on the 22nd and arrangements were then made to move against Matsmai. A body of troops was sent overland, while the bulk of the force on boar I the fleet, proceeded to the attack by sea. THE OUTBREAK IN JAVA. Java papers to the 14th instant, state that Bapa Rama, the Head centre of the Hekas ie rebels, is not yet in custody. Another letter from Mr Benkhof, the Missionary at Depok, appears in the N. B. Handelsblad, giving further details of the plans and intentions, of the insurgents, in the late outbreak. He proves that the ramifications of it were more extensive than wore at first imagined. Bapa Rama boasted to the natives, at the grand feast, that he had connections at Cheribon. According to the unanimous testimony of the prisoners, it is plain that on Sunday, the fourth of April, Depok was to have been Bapa Rama himself was among the 70 man dressed to white who were seen marching towards Ratu Jaya (about a mile from Depck). And he sent some from this band to Buitenzorg, to make a start there, by surprising the prison, and releasing the prisoners, as soon as the attack on Depok had taken place. These emissaries rambled about Buitenzorg for some days, but seeing no opportunity of beginning, and having heard that the plot had not succeeded at Depok, they returned without effecting anything; while the Resident, by his quick movements, succeeded in securing a portion of the rebels at Ratu Jays, and sending them in chains to Depok.

Bapa Rama, the fugitive head rebol, has made known to the prisoners that it does not matter their being prisoners as he will speedily bring about their deliverance, by organismy a new expedition in the Cheribon district to begin at Tagal Waroe, and afterwards march to Krawang, Batavia, and other places. All this affords clues to the authorities, who are on the alert. Bapa Rama, not performing miracles according to profession and promise, did more than anything to crush the rebellion. soldiers were advancing on the body of rebels who murdered Mr. de Kuypers, Bapa Rama wanted them to sally forth, and fight hand to hand with the military, spear against bayouet. His followers on the contr.ry looked to him for a miracle; and timing out that he had no mirsculous powers at command in the hour of need, an immediate " division on the camp" took place; some forthwith gave themselves up, others? fled The fact is, he had been too profuse in his promises of miraculous aid. Hence, many of his deluded and disgusted adherents are turning Government informers, and he on his part cannot much longer clude capture.
